

PROFFORMANCE thematic webinar - Student-centred course design

Test of the PROFFORMANCE self-assessment

Thematic area 1 – Student-centred course design

Dear Participants,

The PROFFORMANCE toolikt consists of the Assessment tool tool.profformance.eu and the teaching excellence database award.tool.eu and will be complemented with tutorials, guidelines and short courses.

At the first Thematic webinar, participants may test the self-assessment of the Thematic area student-centred course design, and listen to good practices from the database and also think together on how to assure student-centredness in courses.

We would like to give you a short guide how to participate in this joint assessment with the community of the Webinar.

Participating in this test is anonymous so no personal data can be seen. Your contact details are not connected into the system.
